Below are the initial class listings for adult life training:

HIS NEEDS, HER NEEDS

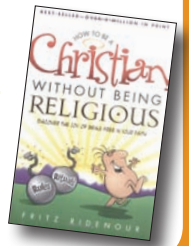

Husbands and wives have different needs. In the class we'll discover what some of those needs are and how to meet them. Among the topics to be discussed are: Communication, accepting differences, and spiritual intimacy.

TAUGHT BY: Howard and Martha Brammer.
LOCATION: Auditorium

HOW TO BE A CHRISTIAN (WITHOUT BEING RELIGIOUS)

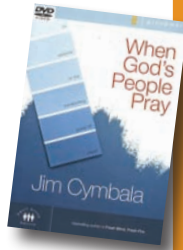

Dive deeper into the book of Romans through Fritz Ridenour's classic book. This class will serve as a great companion to our current message series.

TAUGHT BY: Ben Chilcote
LOCATION: Chapel

WHEN GOD'S PEOPLE PRAY

Discover the power of God to restore hope, ignite faith, work miracles, and change lives—through prayer. This class uses the material developed by Jim Cymbala, author and pastor of the Brooklyn Tabernacle

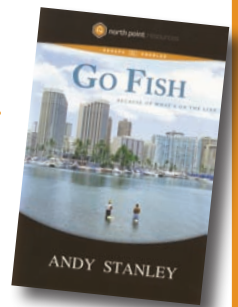

TAUGHT BY: Nancy Shaffer and Kara Clutter
LOCATION: Room 113 (JERICHO JUNCTION)

GO FISH

Understand and embrace God's call on every Christian to be a fisher of people. A practical and motivational study based on the teaching of pastor and author Andy Stanley.

TAUGHT BY: Brent Thurston
LOCATION: Room 211
